The University of Hawaii and SWU have signed a five-year academic agreement for cooperation in the field of tourism management. The June 4th agreement, between the School Travel Industry Management at the University of Hawaii and the Department of Business Administration, Faculty of Social Science at SWU, was signed by Dean Walter Jamieson on behalf of the U of H, and SWU Vice President for Academic Affairs, Napaporn Havanon.